

ENERGY BALL/ CONTRACT REVOCATION (A co-creation to manifest ease, joy and sovereignty into your life using tools by Access Consciousness & A. Bartzis)

I call to all spiritual contracts that exist within my past, present and future beings, selves and existence in this dimension and time stream and all time streams above and below the Earth centric sine wave of co-existence.

At this exact moment, in the ever-present co-creative moment, I summon all DNA lineage ancestors to create a unified-proper spiritual court of equity so I may find remedy and resolve with all contracts that have inserted fine print during the pre-birth, birth and puberty process. I call forth the proper spiritual court of equity to hear my decree of contract removal. I call forth all ancestors of all soul relations to hold space in this spiritual court of equity. I call to Earth Mother and all her light denizens within all inner and outer space to come forward and occupy this spiritual court of equity.

Oh great mystery who is the source of all power, I call to you. Come with your sacred synchronicity so all beings may hold space with unity consciousness. I call to Great Spirit who lives within Great Mystery. You the powers of mother Earth manifested, I call to your wisdom, in this "I AM" moment.

Bless me as I walk this sacred soil. Bless me as I breathe your sacred air. Bless me as I warm myself with sacred fire. Bless me with your sacred waters of life. Bless me as I learn to walk with personal power.

Today I travel the great unknown, grant me the wisdom to be humble. Grant me the wisdom to love, even when love is not returned. Grant me the knowledge to balance my way of being. So I may heal my family, my tribe, my nation and our mother Earth.

I release all 3D-4D illusions pertaining to separation, and fully disconnect all my energy from all lower vibrational timelines, matrixes, realities and grids, as I no longer wish to be connected to them. I herewith sever the cords of spiritual energy exchanges with all beings that are not equally co-creating with me. I am letting go for all people and projects that are holding me back.

I open my Heart Fully and Fearlessly as I anchor to Higher Dimensional timelines to continue my Spiritual evolution. I cancel all contracts and/or agreements that I have made with any entity, guide, or being, in this timeline and in all timelines and realities and dimensions across All That IS, that are not for the Highest Good of ALL and in alignment with my soul's purpose in this NOW.

ENERGYBALL

Now, take a few deep breaths and start noticing the edges of your physical body and allow the space, the 99,99999% space within your molecules to expand beyond your physicality. Allow that space, that you truly be, to fill in the room that you are in, the house, the street, the town, the country. Expand yourself beyond this planet, all the way up to the Central sun, beyond the universes and the cosmos. In that state of expansion imagine a ball in front of you, a ball made of energy and allow that ball to expand as you start out adding the energy of:

- Everything that allows you to perceive, know, be and receive everything that you have already actualised in this reality
- Everything that allows you to perceive, know, be and receive the oneness of all that is.
- Everything that allows you to honor your body and its sexualness and its sexual communion with another
- Everything that allows you to acknowledge the contribution to consciousness that you truly be.
- Everything that allows you to actualise your true desires with the speed of light
- Everything that allows you to connect to your seven future generations and all your seven past generations, so you may have ancestral visitations and understandings
- Everything that allows you to choose as you and for you
- Everything that allows you to receive life with total ease, joy and glory
- Everything that allows you to bare witness to the paradox of entanglement and acknowledge your own authentic signature frequency of remedy and resolve.
- Everything that allows you to become the un-entangled observer as a sacred neutral witness in these times of transformation.
- Everything that allows you to acknowledge your multidimensional existence on all timelines, dimensions and timestreams.

- Everything that allows you to perceive, know, be and receive my greatness and pure light and love that I truly be
- Everything that allows you to share my reality in sovereign mutual expression of do no harm to all sentient life
- Everything that allows you to expand your knowingness and to recognize all residual images of other Soul family members outside this frequency of time.
- Everything that allows you to find inner peace and solace through dreaming and awake time.

Now, notice and acknowledge the aliveness of your energy ball and start drawing the universal cosmic energy through that ball of creation, through you, and allow trickles to go back out in time, space and consciousness.

Take a deep breath in and out and finish off by saying out loud: I call forth all the ancestors to honor this creation of my free will and enter it into the Earth Akashic record for all sentient kind to understand that our freedom comes with the use of free will at all times.
